Cluex (CLX) Whitepaper

Abstract

Cluex (CLX) is a utility token built on The Open Network (TON), designed to empower thinkers, creators, and communities within the decentralized digital ecosystem. Leveraging TON's scalability, ultra-low fees, and native integration, CLX aims to become a cornerstone asset across DeFi, NFTs, governance (DAO), and real-world payments.

"A mysterious digital clue, created for thinkers."

Token Overview

• Token Name: Cluex

• Symbol: CLX

• Blockchain: TON (The Open Network)

• Decimals: 9

• Total Supply: 100,000,000,000 CLX

Vision & Mission

The vision of Cluex is to introduce a mystery-inspired digital asset that drives exploration, critical thinking, and decentralized collaboration. By harnessing the speed and scalability of the TON blockchain, CLX offers a secure, transparent, and community-driven foundation to support long-term growth and adoption.

Problem & Solution

Current Market Problems

- High fees on traditional blockchains
- Slow transaction speeds under network congestion
- Lack of originality and distinct identity among tokens

CLX Solutions

- TON Efficiency: Near-instant transfers with ultra-low gas fees
- Community-Centric Model: Designed to reward participation, governance, and exploration
- Utility-First Approach: Wide use cases including payments, staking, NFTs, and DeFi

Technology & Infrastructure

- Network: TON Blockchain
- Scalability: Capable of thousands of transactions per second for real-time applications
- Smart Contracts: Secure, lightweight, and interoperable by design
- Integration: Planned adoption across DeFi platforms, NFT marketplaces, and TON-native applications

Tokenomics

• Total Supply: 100,000,000,000 CLX

• Decimals: 9

Proposed Allocation:

- 40% Liquidity & Listings
- 25% Development & Team
- 20% Early Investors & Private Sale
- 10% Marketing & Community Incentives
- 5% Long-Term Reserve

This distribution model is designed to balance growth, adoption, and sustainability.

Use Cases

- Payments: Seamless transactions within the TON ecosystem at negligible cost
- Governance (DAO): Token holders shape partnerships, proposals, and ecosystem development
- Staking & Rewards: Incentives for long-term holding and staking CLX
- NFT & Metaverse: Native transactional currency for digital collectibles and virtual assets
- DeFi Integration: Use in lending, liquidity pools, and yield farming on TON-based DeFi platforms

Roadmap

- Q3 2025: Token launch on TON & liquidity pool creation
- Q4 2025: Staking platform launch & community expansion campaigns
- Q1 2026: Partnerships with TON-based DeFi and NFT projects
- Q2 2026: NFT marketplace integration & DAO governance framework
- Q3 2026: Cross-chain bridge with Ethereum/BSC for interoperability
- Q4 2026: Centralized exchange listings & ecosystem expansion

Community & Governance

Community is at the core of Cluex. Through DAO governance, token holders will have the power to influence the project's direction. Social platforms like Telegram and Twitter (X) will serve as central hubs for updates, discussions, and collective decision-making.

Risks & Legal Considerations

• Market Volatility: CLX is subject to inherent crypto market fluctuations

- Regulatory Environment: Future regulations may impact token accessibility in certain jurisdictions
- Technology Risks: Despite secure deployment, unforeseen vulnerabilities may occur
